

Bio for John Higbee

John retired in 2010 as a Vice Officer after a 46-year career in held a variety of executive health insurance carriers including Michigan and Minnesota, private carriers

President & Chief Information the health insurance industry. He positions with a number of regional two Blue Cross Blue Shield plans in Plans here in Florida. During his working years he was active in a number of computer related professional organizations and was President of two different Homeowner Associations. John was a brownie and cub scout leader for several years. John is a graduate of Michigan State University and spent 3 years in the Navy Reserves.

John & Judi (McClure) have been married for 25 years. John had 8 children from two previous marriages. Judi has provided “mom” support for these children and the currently 11 grandchildren.

John is actively engaged in photography and reading all those novels one does not have time for when working for a paycheck. He also enjoys spending time researching and arranging for their international travel.

John is a travel fanatic and has been on nearly 90 international trips to over 140 countries.