

THANKS TO...

YOU for attending this evening's program!

Village Ringers Board of Directors - Bonnie Fisher, President; Ron Drozd, Vice President; Amy Cornwall-Robinson, Treasurer; Emily Spann, Secretary; John Higbee, Member-at-Large.

New Covenant United Methodist Church, Harold Hendren, Sr. Pastor, Ellen Pollock, Associate Pastor, and Sean Pollock, Director of Worship and Music, for hosting our weekly rehearsals and our concerts.

Dave Fisher, emcee; Lana McKinzie, bell tree soloist, and the Village Ringers' spouses who support us in multiple ways!

Village Ringers are honored to have Angie Rose as our guest vocalist this evening!

Born and raised in Ohio, Angie Rose holds degrees in Vocal Performance and Communications from Kent State University. She made her living in the professional theatre circuit as a conductor and keyboard player with over a hundred productions and well over five thousand performances under her belt, having performed and traveled all over the country in Broadway National Tours and Regional Theatres.

She has performed at Carnegie Hall in New York as well as internationally as a soloist at St. Peter's Basilica at the Vatican in Rome, Italy and this past year was honored to premiere a brand new work, composed by herself and Maestro Bill Doherty entitled "Requiem for World Peace" in Vienna, Austria.

Here in The Villages, Angie plays the role of actress, singer, songwriter, pianist and DJ, having performed on stage at the Studio Theatre at Tierra del Sol, The Sharon L. Morse Performing Arts Center and The Savannah Center as well as co-producing the annual Concert, "A Quiet Christmas", celebrating its fourth season this year, where her critically acclaimed song of the same title was originally conceived. As well as being the Associate Director of Worship at New Covenant United Methodist Church, Angie can be heard on-air in the mornings on The Villages Breakfast Club on WVLG, The Villages Radio Station.
